Social and Club Affairs

Mrs. H. H. Ink at her home in 937 North Walnut street, was hostess Tuesday noon at a prettily appointed dinner, given in honor of the Oberlin Glee club of Oberlin, O. The table appointments were yellow jonquils and hyacinths. Following the dinner the guests were entertained informally and a number of musical selections were rendered by the club. Covers were placed for the following: O. M. Richards, J. B. Andrews, G. A. Andrus, P. E. Thomas, G. L. Buck, W. E. Clegg, P. D. Miller, F. J. Fucher, T. T. MacCollin, H. Pennington, Jr., T. J. Ebbett, F. F. Kenyon, E. D. Beach, L. H. McDaniels, W. H. Snalls, J. E. Winkler, T. H. Harvey, R. J. Duncan, W. R. Anderson, F. F. Kenyon, Miss Carrie Ink, '09 class of Oberlin, Harper Ink, a student at Oberlin and Joseph Ink.

TO GIVE SOCIAL.

The class of young ladies of the Trinity United Evangelical class, taught by Mr. George Rubinal, will give a box social Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Grace Bradberry, 1206 Garfield avenue. A splendid evening's entertainment has been planned by the class and it is hoped that a large number will attend. The proceeds received from the sale of the boxes will be used to complete a work undertaken by the class.

GAVE EUCHE PARTY.

Mrs. J. A. Heingartner, 221 South Walnut street, entertained informally at euche Wednesday night. There were three tables in use, and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Ben Eckels, Mrs. McDonald and Alfred Eckels. The guests were the members of the Diamond Euche club. April 18 the club will meet at the home of Mrs. Alfred Anderson.

MATINEE MUSICAL CLUB.

The Matinee Musical club held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Ira Everhard, in North Cleveland avenue. The composers for the afternoon were Schubert and Schuman. Miss Florence MacDonald, from Mt. Union college, was a guest of honor. She sang the "Lotus Bloom" by Schumann, and "Hark-Hark The Lark," by Schubert, and rendered several other beautiful songs in a very artistic manner. Following is the program of the afternoon: Roll call was responded to with quotations from Schumann's Rules and Maxims. Schumann was the subject of a paper read by Mrs. Everhard.

Following the program the guests enjoyed an indoor picnic. The picnic table was gayly decorated with spring flowers and carnations. The next meeting will be held the first week in May.

ENTRE NOUS CLUB.

One hundred and thirty-five couples attended the Easter dance of the Entre Nous club in Houser hall Wednesday evening. Norwood's ten-piece or-

Harris and Forest Shaub were the committee in charge. This was the last dance of the series. The club is planning to give a dance at Springfield lake, June 16.

MORNING NEWS ADS. ADVERTISE

The King of the Forest

represents in no greater degree of strength and superiority in the animal kingdom than does the famous bottling of Golden Export in the domain of brewing. It's the king of table beers and highly recommended by physicians. Made from select grades of barley, malt and hops. It is at once pure, palatable and healthful. Bottled only when properly brewed. Imparts vigor to the languid and restores the strength of the convalescent. Quality is invariable.

Want column advs., 30 words, three times, 25c; 1 week 50c. For Rent and For Sale cards free to those who insert advertisements. Copy for ads. for this column should be sent in not later than 7 p. m. to insure publication in the next morning's issue.
